

Latest
Research

Seminars 2004

Orthotic Prescription

Craig Payne

Lecturer Latrobe University Australia
Department of Podiatry

Jason Agosta

Podiatrist for Essendon Football Club /
Melbourne Storm / National Track Athletes

Latest orthotic prescription research

- The latest in clinically relevant research
- The Windlass Mechanism and orthotic design that assists the natural function of the foot
- How to determine whether a patient requires orthotic treatment
- How orthoses work
- Problem solving

Clinical application in practice

- The clinical use of orthoses
- Assessment of the patient:
Non-weight bearing
Weight bearing
Gait analysis
- Forces on lower limb during activity and relevance to use of orthoses
- Criteria to justify intervention
- Which orthotic when?

Return registration form to OPC fax: (03) 9681 9366

Call for more information ph: 1800 809 635 or (03) 9681 9666

Post to OPC 151-159 Turner Street Port Melbourne 3207

Registrations close 4pm Tuesday 7th September

Free
Interpod orthotic
sample pack valued at $165

Name: _____

Practice Name: _____

Address: _____

Ph: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____

Method of Payment: Cheque Visa Bankcard Mastercard

Card No.: Expiry Date:

Cardholders Name: _____ Signature: _____

Brisbane Seminar

Saturday 4 Hour Session

Saturday September 11th 2004, 10.30am - 3.30pm,
Diana Plaza Hotel, 12 Annerley Road Woolloongabba.

Cost: $145 plus GST (Total $159.50)
Lunch and light refreshments provided

Sponsored by Interpod and OPC